Well spring is finally here and the weather is getting warmer. This is great as it will give people the chance to get out of the house and finally get some fresh air. Things with the rescue have continued to move forward and we continue to be busy with responding calls. We continue to deal with COVID, it does appear that we are dealing with it less then we have but we are not letting our guard down. We are hoping that people are getting their vaccination. We highly encourage it and if people have questions about the safety or would like some education over it they are free to call the station any time.
